£370 per ELSA (Outborough)

Price includes 4 full days training and supervision sessions

(Discounts for 2 or more ELSAs per school)

RBWM schools continue to rate ELSA training very highly and due to demand we are pleased to offer additional training. ELSA training continues to be an essential development for TAs who support children and young people with emotional, behavioural and social needs.

ELSA Training Application Form

Schools are asked to agree to a number of commitments in order to ensure that ELSA's work can be optimally effective in school.

Headteachers are asked to register their commitment as part of the training application process

ELSAs will need:

- Timetabled time and suitable space to work with identified children
- Access to appropriate material for use with C/YP
- Assistance from a nominated member of senior staff to clarify and enable the ELSA role in the school context
- Line management
- Release from school to undertake initial training and regular ELSA support and group supervision (a charge will be incurred for supervision from April 2020).
- To agree to observation(s) from a member of Behaviour Support Team to ensure retention on RBWM ELSA register

Please make your formal application via the link below by 19.10.18
